of jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Customs inviting applications, as stipulated in the Customs House Agents Licensing Regulations. The notice inviting the applications is also put ups on the Notice Board of each custom station. It is therefore not correct to say that the notice is not advertised in the newspapers. Further no regional restrictions are applied for aspirants of fresh licence and any person who meets the eligibility criterion can apply. It is correct that a licence-holder may engage in the custom clearance work throughout the country, subject to intimation in the prescribed Form-C to jurisdictional Commissioner of Customs.
